

Press Release

Contact: Peggy Deston
Phone: (508) 674-2245

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 30, 2013

LITTLE THEATRE AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

The Little Theatre of Fall River, Inc. held its Annual Meeting on June 26th at The Firebarn. John J. Nunes was elected as President of the community theater group. A slate of officers and Board of Directors was voted on by the members present.

Two prestigious honors were given to the following members. The Angus Bailey Award was presented to Dee Kullander and the Peg Panos Award was given to John Nunes. A special President's Award was given by outgoing President Jeff Belanger to James Tavares, Jr., citing his many artistic contributions over the years to Little Theatre.

The Annual Scholarship Awards were presented for the 15th year. Allyson Duarte of Westport was the recipient of the Little Theatre Performing Arts Scholarship. Allyson will further her education as a Musical Theater major at The Boston Conservatory. Branden Quental of Fall River was the recipient of the Georgina Correia Memorial Scholarship. Branden will enter Rhode Island

College in the fall with a major in music education. Sarah Elizabeth Reed of Fall River was the recipient of the Little Theatre/REX Performing Arts Scholarship. Sarah will enter Rhode Island College in the fall and pursue a major in musical theater.

-End-